NETBALL ORKNEY PRIVACY NOTICE

For existing and new members

What this privacy notice covers

Netball Orkney is committed to protecting your personal information. In this notice, references to 'we' and 'us' means Netball Orkney. This notice explains how we collect and use the personal information about you.

What we need

Netball Orkney will be a "controller" of the personal information that you provide us in this form, unless otherwise stated.

When you register as a member of Netball Orkney or renew your membership (including if you are registering on behalf of a child under the age of 18), we may ask you for the following personal information:

- Contact details – name, address, email address and phone number
- Date of birth – to allocate the appropriate membership category and confirm your eligibility for events and courses
- Membership category – i.e. senior, non playing, junior, volunteer etc.
- Payment details – bank account number, sort code, card details etc.
- Equality information – gender, disability, religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation
- Medical Information

Why we need your personal information – contractual purposes

We need to collect our members' personal information so that we can manage your membership.

We may use our members' personal information to:

- provide you with core member services, including, insurance, licensing and PVG checks;
- set up a Netball Scotland online membership account and administer your account online;
- send you membership communication by email in relation to essential membership services, including but not limited to, general meeting notices, membership renewals and information on membership fees.

If you do not provide us with all of the personal information that we need to collect, then this may affect our ability to offer the above membership services and benefits.

Why we need your personal information – legitimate purposes

We also process our members' personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests to:

- promote and encourage participation in the sport of netball by sending members' communications and booking information for upcoming competitions and events. Our competitions and events may be filmed or photographed, and your personal information may also be used in images captured from our competitions and events, which we may use for promotional, education and development purposes;

- provide competition in the sport of netball by accepting and managing entries for competitions and checking your personal information to ensure you are entered in to the correct competition;
- develop and maintain our members' qualifications, including sending email communications to members to inform you of upcoming courses, renewal requirements and verify that you have completed any mandatory training and PVG / child protection requirements;
- respond to and communicate with members regarding your questions, comments, support needs or complaints, concerns or allegations in relation to the sport of netball. We will use your personal information to investigate your complaint, suspend membership and take disciplinary action where appropriate.

Where we process your personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests, you have the right to object to us using your personal information for the above purposes. If you wish to object to any of the above processing, please contact us on netballorkney@hotmail.co.uk. If we agree and comply with your objection, this may affect our ability to undertake the tasks above for the benefit of you as a member.

Why we need your personal information – legal obligations

We are under legal obligation to process certain personal information relating to our members for the purposes of complying with our obligations under:

- the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 to check that our coaches and volunteers are able to undertake regulated work with children and vulnerable adults.

Other uses of your personal information

We may ask you if we can process your personal information for additional purposes. Where we do so, we will provide you with an additional privacy notice with information on how we will use your information for these additional purposes.

Who we share your personal information with

- We may be required to share your personal information with statutory or regulatory authorities to comply with statutory obligations. Such organisations may include the Health & Safety Executive, Disclosure Scotland, and Police Scotland for the purposes of safeguarding children.
- We may share your personal information with our professional and legal advisors for the purposes of taking advice.
- For those members who become affiliated to Netball Scotland we will share your name, address, telephone number, email address, date of birth, and any other information they may require in order to carry out their responsibilities as a Sports Governing Body in Scotland. Netball Scotland will become a “controller” of your personal information when they receive it. Netball Scotland’s privacy notice explains how they use your personal information and their reasons for contacting you. Please read this over by viewing the document on the Netball Scotland website; <https://www.netballscotland.com/governance/policy-documents/>. This document also details how you can amend your communication preferences should you wish. Please note, Netball Orkney agree to all communication opt ins when completing your affiliation with Netball Scotland.

- We may share your personal information with other members of Netball Orkney & Netball Orkney Coaching staff for the purpose of coordinating teams for competitions , training events, or compiling statistics.
- We may share your personal information with other relevant Associations for the purposes of registering you for competitions and events.

In the event that we do share personal information with external third parties, we will only share such personal information strictly required for the specific purpose and take reasonable steps to ensure that recipients shall only process the disclosed personal information in accordance with those purposes.

How we protect your personal information

Your personal information is stored in a secure location and/or electronically on a pc/laptop which is password protected. Data will be accessed by our appointed Club Officials for the purposes set out above. Committee members dealing with membership may also access data. On occasion Netball Orkney volunteers may collect personal information.

How long we keep your personal information

We will only keep your personal information for as long as necessary to provide you with membership services. Unless you ask us not to, we will review and possibly delete your personal information where you have not renewed your membership with us for six years.

Your rights

You can exercise any of the following rights by writing to us at netballorkney@hotmail.co.uk. Your rights in relation to your personal information are:

- you have a right to request access to the personal information that we hold about you by making a “subject access request”;
- if you believe that any of your personal information is inaccurate or incomplete, you have a right to request that we correct or complete your personal information;
- you have a right to request that we restrict the processing of your personal information for specific purposes; and
- if you wish us to delete your personal information, you may request that we do so.

Any requests received by Netball Orkney will be considered under applicable data protection legislation. If you remain dissatisfied, you have a right to raise a complaint with the Information Commissioner’s Office at www.ico.org.uk
